The Berlin Congress.

BERLIN, July 13.—The Congress held its last sitting to-day. The proceedings begun at 2:30 and ended at 4 o'clock. The treaty was signed by all the Plenipotentiaries alphabetically. The secretaries attended previously at 1 o'clock in the afternoon to affix the Plenipotentiaries' seals to each copy. The proceedings terminated with a grand Court dinner this evening at Whitehall palace. Crown Prince Frederick William congratulated the illustrious statesman upon the realization of his hopes, that the blessings of peace crowned their efforts. He declared that Germany's co-operation can be counted on for all that tends to secure and preserve this great benefit. The only absentees from the banquet were Lord Beaconsfield and Gortschakoff. The German semi-official press publish long poems of rejoicing and triumphing on the signature of the treaty of peace.

LONDON, July 13.—The treaty of peace contains fifty-eight articles. The Times version, declared at Berlin to be unauthentic—contains fifty-seven articles and makes no mention of two important questions, namely: the Dardanelles and Armenia. It is probably an early copy obtained before final revision. Its first twelve articles relate to Bulgaria, which is constituted an autonomous tributary, principally under the suzerainty of the Sultan, with a Christian government and national militia. These articles further regulate the election of a Prince by the notables at Tirnova. Articles 13 to 21 inclusively relate to the new province called Eastern Roumelia, south of the Balkans, which is placed under the military and political authority of the Sultan, with, however, a Christian Governor, and in conditions of autonomous administration. The Governor is to be appointed by the Porte, with the assent of the Powers, for five years.

Pyramid Lake.

A correspondent of the Sacramento Record-Union describes the largest body of water in Nevada as follows: "Pyramid lake itself is an object of interest. Lake Tahoe is the cradle of the Truckee river. Pyramid lake is its grave. Here, after a brief but rapid career, it sinks in quiet slumber. No drop finds its way to the ocean, unless by some subterranean outlet. There is not another body of water 40 miles long and 15 miles wide in the United States so little known or seen by so few as this. It is much larger than Tahoe, which it resembles in its enormous depth, but not in the purity and beauty of its waters. It takes its name from a number of pillar like rocks that rise in solid columns, 300 or 400 feet in height, swelling out at the top into caps or heads, something of a mushroom shape. They are white in color, and exceedingly picturesque. The dull Pinto has a large reservation on the south and east side of the lake. Here, where his barbarous ancestors have clubbed the jack-rabbit and coyote, and grown brawnier in their naked filthiness under a sweltering desert sun of countless years, the Great Father has given him a like privilege, secure from the encroachments of the white hunter, of newspapers, or of soap. The region is one of great interest to the scientists, and in all probability it will soon be both profitable and interesting to the commercial and every description of traveler."

Severe Storm and Loss of Life.
DUBUQUE, Iowa, July 13.—Thursday's storm did great damage, but particulars are lacking. The Illinois Central railroad is broken up for several miles, three or four bridges and five hundred feet of track being gone. No trains from Chicago. The crops are injured at several places. Not far from here four or five lives were lost by lightning Thursday morning, and one house here is completely demolished.

Hiram Fooks (colored) was hanged at Princess Anne, Somerset, Maryland, Saturday afternoon for the murder of John Tyler (colored), aged eighteen. Fooks died proclaiming his innocence.

THE INDIAN WAR.

The Umatilla Indians Join the Hostiles—Gov. Chadwick Calls Out 300 Volunteers.

PORTLAND, July 13th.—The following startling news is just received here from Pendleton, under date of July 12th, from J. B. Keeny. The dispatch is directed to Governor Chadwick: "The hostile Indians are in force on the reservation. George Coggon, of Portland, and Al. Bunker, of La Grande, were shot this afternoon about six miles from here. An escort sent after them got as far as Chief Wincum-snoot's farm, when they were attacked and compelled to return after exchanging a number of shots. The Indians are about 150 strong. The Umatillas are undoubtedly fighting with them. Major Connoyer was with the party attacked. They think they killed one Indian, as he was seen to fall from his horse."

Governor Chadwick has called for 300 volunteers. The proclamation calling out volunteers, in substance, recites the condition of affairs; that all the friendly Indians will go to the hostiles when they find they can be successful against the whites; that all friendly Indians, with few exceptions, are midnight allies of the hostiles, and aid them in removing stolen stock and plunder; that their promises and pledges of friendship cannot be relied upon, and that they have misled the settlers and soldiers and have acted as spies and scouts for the hostiles. He further cautions volunteers against doing any act not justified by custom governing modern warfare. The men will all be raised in eastern Oregon.

The following letter has just been received at Umatilla by Governor Chadwick, by courier from Pendleton:

"The troops under Captain Miles are now fighting about two miles above the agency with Indians. They have been fighting for the last two hours. The Indians are on the river near their general camping place. Almost all the Umatillas are supposed to be in the fight. Al Bunker has just got in. Coggon has not been found yet. Should the Indians get the best of Captain Miles we will all undoubtedly have to fight. There are over 100 men here who have no arms of any kind."

Political Notes.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The Democratic Congressional Committee have not yet made any great preparations for the coming canvass this fall. Members who have hitherto subscribed liberally to the general fund, state that their means will be applied locally this year in aiding to return representatives from close districts, which they regard as a more effective mode of campaigning than by the circulation of political documents. Members of the committee say that hard times make it difficult to collect any money for political purposes.

LITTLE ROCK, Arkansas, July 13.—The Greenback State Convention met to-day, and after appointing a State Central Committee, with authority to place in the field a State ticket, adjourned.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Collector Merritt and Naval Officer Burt qualified to-day.

The Improvement of Cyprus.

LONDON, July 13.—The government appears busy with details of military and civil establishments in Cyprus. The papers announce the appointment of postmasters and other officials. General Sir Garnet Wolseley has already under consideration a scheme of a financial company for introducing railroads. Arrangements are being made for a submarine cable to Alexandria, which gives direct communication with England. Among the schemes brought to the surface by English occupation of Cyprus is the Euphrates valley railway. The Duke of Sutherland and others are in active communication with the government on the subject, and it is stated if within a reasonable time it appears that the Anglo-Turkish convention is successful, it is possible the country will be asked to give a guarantee for the proposed railway.

Boiler Explosion.

A Grayson, Cal., dispatch of the 13th inst. says: The boiler of a threshing machine owned by L. A. Richards, working on the ranch of Thomas Wilson, three miles from this place, exploded yesterday afternoon. Thos. Harwood was killed and James Healy seriously wounded and scalded. A Mexican boy was slightly burned. Two horses were killed and others hurt. The engine is a complete wreck. Some damage was done to the separator and two headers were badly broken up. The loss to Mr. Richards is estimated at $3000.

THE STATE FAIR.

It is becoming apparent to every one that Carson is disposed to push herself ahead irrespective of the rights of any one else. Citizens of Reno in the year 1873 inaugurated a State Agricultural Society. Citizens of other counties came to our aid, believing that Nevada should have an institution of the kind. The society thus inaugurated has endured reverses, and it has been an up-hill journey. The improvement of grounds and the construction of buildings has made a large expenditure of money necessary during each year of the society's life, and the institution is now for the first time in a position where it can move forward without any addition to its property. It has, in other words, but just begun to live. It was the intention at some future day, to make the society essentially and officially a State institution, and it was hoped that Nevada would have a State Agricultural Society worthy of her name and rank among the States. The society needs, however, the support of the entire State. Now comes Carson and builds herself a race track. This was well, and we were glad to see it. That city wanted races on the Fourth of July and we gave way cheerfully. Not only that, but Reno and Washoe county turned out in full force and helped Carson. No sooner, however, was a success reached than a State fair is advertised, the name of the old society is taken without leave, and everything possible is done to deprive Reno of the fair, and remove it to Carson. We are not fearing that such a move will succeed, but we would like to show the Carsonites wherein their action is ungenerous and unfruitful. For the city of Carson to have spring and fall races is just the thing, and we shall wish her all success. To attempt, however, a State fair as against Reno is all wrong. We can work together, and should do so. If Carson refuses to be honorable we will lock horns.

In the Tribune of Saturday we find this choice bit: "Carson has as much right to hold a State fair as Reno, and by the great hornspoons she will hold it, the Alexanders, the Chamberlains and the devil to the contrary, notwithstanding." This item is a sufficient illustration of the animus which rules Carson in this matter. The State fair will be held at Reno and not at Carson. The citizens of Washoe may perhaps rest easy because the best citizens of Carson do not endorse any such unprincipled movement.

The political horizon is beginning to look streaked, and the wire puller wants to know for whom he is to work. Newspaper men, too, are beginning to taste the pleasures of handling election printing, and have ordered a notice at the head of their columns saying that all printing must be settled for in advance. Here is the platform of the Courier-Journal: "All articles in favor of any particular individuals as candidates for office, no matter either directly or indirectly intended to personally benefit any candidate, must be paid for (in advance) to secure insertion in the Courier-Journal. This rule is a necessity to protect ourselves and our readers, and will be inflexibly observed."

About 4 o'clock Sunday morning Mrs. Spaulding, the divorced wife of Martin O'Connor of Galesburg, Illinois, shot him with a revolver, the ball entering just above the heart. He died in a few minutes. She then shot herself fatally, but is not yet dead. Jealousy was the cause.

In view of the peaceful condition of Cuba, the Captain General has removed the restrictions upon the use of ciphers in commercial telegrams, but reserves to the government the right to require the exact translation of any cipher message before delivered.

Hon. Stephen Preston, Minister of Hayti to this country, has received letters from Port-au-Prince stating that a large fire broke out in the central part of that city June 23d. Thirty-eight houses were burned down. The total loss is estimated at $500,000.

Considerable anxiety is excited about Lord Beaconsfield's illness, since it is known that his private physician has gone to him, but the latest news from Berlin reports that the Premier is better.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

At 2 o'clock Saturday, O'Leary was twenty miles off from Schmell. Both are confident of victory.

Six cases of sunstroke were reported in Cincinnati Saturday; two resulted fatally. The heat is excessive.

Mike Shaw, the wife murderer, was hanged at Milledgeville, Georgia, on Saturday. His neck was not broken, and his body writhed fearfully six minutes after the fall.

John W. Bawkor, cashier of the freight department of the Eastern railroad, abandoned his office recently, and already an investigation shows that he is defaulter to the amount of $30,000.

Courtney on Saturday met Hanlon's representatives at Cape Vincent, N. Y., and a match was arranged between these famous scullers. The stakes are $5000, and the distance is five miles. The place and time are not fixed.

There is great excitement in Wisconsin over the tramp nuisance. Vagrants are capturing trains and demanding rides free and committing all sorts of excesses. Vigorous measures will be passed by city and State authorities.

Six steamships, which will sail for Europe Saturday, have not only full cargoes of freights, but the agents have had to decline much that has been offered. The freight taken is principally grain, but there is a large shipment of live cattle, horses and fresh beef.

A decree has been promulgated for holding an election for Deputies to represent Cuba in the Spanish Cortes. It provides that Cuba shall have a Deputy for every 40,000 free inhabitants. The Deputies must be Spaniards and Laymen, not under twenty-five years of age.

Congressman Horace Davis of California considers the outlook for continued rapid progress in the movement to restrict Chinese immigration highly satisfactory, and feels not only sanguine, but absolutely confident, that final legislative action of the desired character will be taken by Congress next winter.

DAGGETT ON THE BULLION TAX QUESTION.

We were absent from the State when the contest over the bullion tax bill was made in the Legislature of 1877. We have troubled our-elves very little in regard to it because the condition of affairs has entirely changed since then. We heard the dying spasms of the fury which followed the contest and heard the one side argue that, from the uncertainty of the law and the distress of this county, the business men here very generally advised the passage of the bill, and from the other that it was a bonanza trick to avoid a just assessment. It was a question of expediency, which has happily passed; but the constitution, which is not a question of expediency, remains, and that very clearly points out what must be done in relation to taxation. Our judgment is that, in consideration of the enormous surplus in the State Treasury, taxation of all kinds ought to be reduced for the ensuing year. We think that perhaps this might have been done some months ago had not men's passions outran their cooler judgment. But this reduction in taxation should not be alone for the benefit of the mines, but for taxable property generally throughout the State. The mines should be made to bear an equal burden of the general taxation, precisely as prescribed by the constitution—this, and nothing more.

Shooting Affray at Carlin.

A dispatch from Carlin, dated July 13th says: Last evening about 6 o'clock, Richard Richardson, a colored man, shot L. M. Huntsman, a restaurant and saloon keeper. Yesterday morning Huntsman purchased a horse and saddle. Richardson claimed the saddle, and last evening removed it from a mule which Huntsman had hitched outside his door. Huntsman followed with a club in his hand. The negro dropped the saddle, drew a pistol and warned Huntsman not to approach nearer. They were at this time about ten feet apart. Huntsman disregarded the warning, and rushing in struck Richardson with his club on the head. The negro fired, shooting Huntsman through the left lung. The shooter was arrested, and Huntsman lies in a very critical condition. There is some talk of lynching.

All Quiet in Montreal.

A Montreal dispatch of the 13th says: Everything passed off quietly last night. This morning the military from the outside are being sent to their homes. The Orangemen arrested yesterday will come up for preliminary examination on the 18th inst. The charge is for being members of an illegal society. The Orange Young Britons had a procession between 9 and 10 o'clock last night in the western suburbs. They were not molested.

Fatal Accident.

At the hay-yard of Keyser & Elrod, on yesterday morning at about 5 o'clock, a man named M. Collins met with an accident that proved fatal to him. He was at the time assisting in loading a wagon with machinery for the Real Del Monte mine. He had taken hold of quite a heavy casting to move it, his feet braced against the brake rod, when it fell toward him, and losing his footing, it bore him to the ground, and fell with terrible force upon his chest. The poor fellow was carried to his house and medical aid summoned. Dr. Waters made an examination and found that he had been fatally injured internally. The doctor's diagnosis proved correct, for in less than an hour he breathed his last. Mr. Collins, we understand, formerly resided at or near the Spanish Dam. He had lately returned from Bodie, and was employed about the freight depot. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. Mr. Coroner Kersey summoned a jury and held an inquest. The verdict rendered was "That Mr. Collins came to his death from laceration of the lungs by a piece of casting falling upon his chest."—Carson Appeal, July 14th.

A dispatch from Camp Supply, Arizona, reports the drowning of Lieutenants Henly and Rucker, Sixth Infantry, by a water spout.

BORN.

BENDER-In Reno, July 14th, 1878, to the wife of C. T. Bender—a daughter.

MARRIED.

COBB-CROWDER-In Franktown, July 10th 1878, by J. H. Harcourt, J. P., Mr. William A. Cobb to Miss Annie E. Crowder, both of Franktown.

Notings.

Attend the soiree this evening at the opera house.

Nate Holmes, of Franktown, and J. P. Foulkes, of Verdi, were in the burg to-day.

Mr. J. C. Hagerman this morning received a large invoice of goods from San Francisco.

Piper's Opera House band, of Virginia City, furnished the music yesterday at Steamboat. Their music is perfectly grand.

The Success mill, near Washoe, did not start up on last Friday, as was intended, and may not be in operation for two weeks' time.

The thermometer was on friendly terms with 85 degrees in the shade, but as afternoon turned, a gentle wind played upon our half closed eyes.

Mayberry has a few contracts on hand, and the industrious heathen is upon the track. Here is a chance, Workingmen. Put in your bids.

About three hundred men spent the day yesterday at Bowers' Mansion. Prior's band furnished the music. Bowers' is fast becoming the most popular resort for picnics in Nevada.

Professor Ole Larson advertises to teach instrumental music in the 50-cent column to-day. Prof. L. is reputed one of the best violinists in the State. Orders can be left at C. J. Brookins, on Virginia street.

At the glass ball shooting Sunday afternoon there were some excellent shots made, but the sport was cut short by the breaking of the springs of both traps. These springs will be repaired during the week and on next Sunday afternoon the exercise will be resumed.

Nuptial.

Our pleasant friend, Billy Cobb, of Franktown, crowded himself so successfully upon the affections of a most excellent young lady at that place that she has publicly declared that there should be no more Crowder for her. We have often thought that Billy had some very serious thoughts in his mind. He acted so queer on the arrival of a Sunday evening. He would say those little things which show that a fellow's spirit is loafing around some absent one, and whispering its cooings into her ear. If his white vest showed the least sign of swelling out too much when he sat down, he would give it a sudden downward flight and look as if he wished the thing would stay in place as he removed any possible obstructions about his chin with his perfumed kerchief. However, it is all up now, and he has a contract for life. Poor man; he little appreciated single blessedness. He is now in a horrid fix—gone married. Oh, William! how gladly we would have directed you on the path of safety, but you took no stock in anything but your own dear lady. Seriously, this is a good couple, and we have but the single wish that the real life upon which they have entered may be fraught with the genuine successes of life. William and Annie, joy and long life to you both.

INSANE.—Light (better known as "Boss"), who has both legs off below the knee, and he who was so skillful with the wood-saw, was arraigned before Judge Wright on Saturday and adjudged insane. "Boss" has been a hard-working man until within the past two or three months, during which time he has worked but very little, but has given himself up to drink. He was not very bright before, and is now in a condition to require care. Last night he was taken to the Stockton insane asylum. "Boss" has some money which will be under the care of Mr. Wm. Duck, whom the Court appointed as guardian of the doubly unfortunate man.

WOOD SHIPMENTS.—There are now about 32,000 cords of wood at Huffaker's, and from 200 to 250 cords being flumed every day to this dump. The daily shipments by rail to Virginia City range from 100 to 150 cords. Last year the shipments from this point would often amount to fifty carloads per day. About one-third of these cars will ship ten cords each, the remaining two-thirds, short cars, only carry 8 1/2 cords, thus averaging nearly nine cords to the car. At Brown's station there are about 15,000 cords, and from 100 to 150 cords daily flumed to the dump.

SOIREE.—This evening there will be a grand soiree given at the Reno opera house by four members of the Washington Guard band of Virginia City. The dancing will commence at nine o'clock, and close at twelve M. Admission, $1 for gentleman and ladies. Should this party prove successful, these gentlemen will give a soiree one evening in every month. Those who are fond of dancing have now the opportunity of doing so at light expense, and under good music.

MINING INCORPORATIONS.—Articles of incorporation have been filed in the County Clerk's office of the Montana and Aladdin mining companies in Reno. The Trustees of the Montana are Wm. Thompson, J. K. Everett and R. C. Johnson; number of shares, 100,000; value, 1,000,000. The Trustees of the Aladdin are B. B. Norton, Rodger Johnson, M. B. Dwelly, H. H. Beck and Wm. Duck. Number of shares 100,000; value $10,000,000.

MUSICAL.—Mrs. Dor Tillow gave a Musicales in Gladding's hall, Wadsworth, last Thursday evening, which was a success in every particular. Her pupils did well, and thoroughly evince the thoroughness of the instruction imparted by their teacher. Several well arranged tableaux added variety to the entertainment.

MASS MEETING AT GLENDALE.—A fair number were present at the Workingmen's meeting at Glendale last Saturday night. Speeches were made by Messrs. Jones, Hoole and Leeper. The meeting adjourned at 11 o'clock to meet for the purpose of organizing a branch club at Glendale at a time to be appointed.

SENT UP.—Ned Triplet was on Saturday afternoon sent to the county jail for fifteen days. Petty larceny was the accusation, and the Justice Court the scene of his arraignment. This is hard on a young man away from his mother, but he won't do so any more—for fifteen days.

Painful Accident.

On Saturday evening Mr. P. A. Harden, who resides near Steamboat, was thrown from his seat on a four-horse wagon at or near the Junction house and by his fall had his lower jaw broken. He had been to Virginia with a load of farming produce and was on his way home at the time of the accident. He hitched the leaders behind and drove down the Geiger grade with the wheelers. When near Berry's he commenced whipping one of the horses which had hung back and allowed his mate to pull the load. His team got off the road and ran over several large rocks, the result being that young Harden was thrown to the ground and run over by one wheel of the wagon, breaking his jaw at the point of the chin, and bruising his head in a number of places. The team continued their run until they succeeded in making a fair wreck of the wagon. Harden came down to Steamboat and on Sunday morning had his jaw placed in position to heal by Dr. Bergman.

Pedestrian Feat.

Miss Kate Lorence walked her 50 miles at the opera house in 9 hours and 44 minutes. She is about the average size, not overly good-looking, but has great endurance. A number of gentlemen walked with her distances ranging from 100 yards to ten miles. One of our compositors walked eight miles with her; a second walked the last 7 miles. Mr. Maxson made the best mile—time, less than eight minutes. A match was talked of between Miss Lorence and Costello for $100, but her agent would not let her walk this evening, but on to-morrow evening—so we hear.

I. C. R. C.—The officers of Washoe encampment Independent Champions of the Red Cross for the ensuing term were formally installed on Friday evening. They are as follows: E. C., W. Sanders; Sr. Cham., O. S. Harley; E. Coun., Thomas Boyd; C. H., W. H. Moe; Treasurer, R. Leeper; Jr. Cham., Eva Barnes; Mrs. Cer., Mrs. Hendrickson.

BRANCH SUIT AND CLOAK HOUSE.

Weil Brothers announce to the people of Reno that they have just opened in Reno a branch of the Cleveland Suit and Cloak company. As they get their goods directly from the manufactory they can, therefore, undersell all other Reno merchants and yet make a profit on their goods. We have no auction trash, nor do we propose to sell for twenty-five cents what is worth one dollar. We therefore take pleasure in inviting the ladies of Reno and vicinity to call and inspect our stock resting assured that we shall be able to satisfy them both in regard to price and quality of the goods. Store on east side of Virginia street, Reno, Nevada. 6-5-tf WEIL BROTHERS.

I give special attention to Physician's prescriptions, filling them promptly and accurately.
